City Hall Gallery Seeks Artists to Exhibit in 2018

The Springfield Arts Commission (SAC) is searching for artists to exhibit at City Hall Gallery during 2018. All artists are encouraged to apply. Art shown is primarily created by Oregon artists.

City Hall Gallery accommodates two- and three-dimensional art, and invites artists interested in exhibiting solo or in groups. Curated thematic exhibitions are also encouraged to apply.

Exhibition durations are typically four weeks. No fees or commissions are expected from artist exhibitors. Work exhibited must be suitable to the space and its function. Seven open call exhibitions will be chosen to show in 2018, along with the annual Springfield Arts Commission Mayor's Art Show Award-winners and five invitational shows by featured artists Hans D'Hollosy, Jane Tarzis, Jesús Cruz, and Marissa Solini.

To submit proposals, the Springfield Arts Commission asks that entrants review the complete guidelines posted at springfieldartscommission.org. Then, they must submit an application package to the Arts Commission that meets those guidelines.

The application package includes 3-10 photos of art pieces indicative of the exhibition; an image list that details those art pieces' title, media, and size; and information about the artist, including contact information, an artist statement, and months of availability.

Application packages should be received by Friday, September 1, 2017 by Arts Commission Liaison, Thea Hart. Entrants may submit their packages by email to thart@springfield-or.gov, or by mail or hand delivery addressed to:

Springfield Arts Commission, 2018 Exhibition Season
225 5th Street
Springfield, OR 97477

Selection will be made by the Springfield Arts Commission. Artists selected will be notified by November 1, 2017.
